

As a flight attendant, I have seen no hard evidence that cel phone use during active flight will NOT interfere with aircraft systems, especially navigational systems. Also, cel phone use would allow would be terrorists to communicate. There is no good reason to allow passengers to use cel phones during active flight. Please do not allow this to happen.